Training Manuals

Training manual with a course

When you have registered for a course via eLearning or online learning you will receive all training materials online via the eLearning platform. These are downloadable but are not printable.

For those that still prefer to learn from a printed hard copy training manual, you can order a printed hard copy training manual separately as an optional extra.

We have described this option below as “Training manual- registered for a course”.

These manuals are available at prices just above printing costs plus you will need to arrange and pay the courier to fetch the printed manual.

Training manual when not registered for a training course

If you are not registered for any training course but would like to purchase a copy of a specific training manual, you may do so. We have described this option below as “Training manual- not registered for a course”.

These manuals are available at prices specified below plus you will need to arrange and pay the courier to fetch the printed manual.
