

CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCE

History Taking and Physical Examination

This comprehensive 90-hour training programme, aligned with Unit Standard 252160, equips professional nurses with the knowledge and practical skills required to conduct systematic, accurate, and holistic health assessments across all age groups. The course strengthens clinical reasoning, assessment competence, and patient safety within primary care and occupational health contexts.

On achieving competence, learners will be able to do the following (within their scope of practice):

- Conduct structured, comprehensive patient history taking across a range of clinical presentations
- Perform thorough physical examinations using a systematic, age-appropriate approach
- Integrate clinical findings with evidence-based knowledge to inform patient assessment
- Formulate appropriate differential diagnoses for common primary care conditions
- Deliver safe, high-quality patient assessments within legislative, ethical, and professional frameworks
